

Aaron Márquez Jugo

I have an special admiration in beautiful things that helps me a lot with my career and I can proudly say that I work creating digital experiences.

More than 5 years of experience working digital products in some of the most recognized agencies of the country, have allowed me to work together with worldwide brands: Coca-Cola, Pepsi, Nescafé, Dolce Gusto, Sprite, PromPerú, among others!

I also have experience working with agile methodologies like Scrum and leading LeanUX projects that have been assigned to me.
